

Dr. Unthank and the Vanport flood, that helped shape the history of Oregon. I will come back to the floor each week this month to talk more about why Black History Month is important to Oregonians.

LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT ACT OF 2001

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise today to speak about the need for hate crimes legislation. In the last Congress, Senator KENNEDY and I introduced the Local Law Enforcement Act, a bill that would add new categories to current hate crimes law, sending a signal that violence of any kind is unacceptable in our society.

I would like to describe a terrible crime that occurred April 26, 2001, in Los Angeles, CA. A college student assaulted a police officer outside a fraternity. The student, Adam Guerrero, 23, threw objects and shouted racial slurs at a Black traffic officer who was standing outside the fraternity house. The student was charged with counts of committing a hate crime, battery on a peace officer, and assault on a peace officer.

I believe that government's first duty is to defend its citizens, to defend them against the harms that come out of hate. The Local Law Enforcement Enhancement Act is a symbol that can become substance. I believe that by passing this legislation and changing current law, we can change hearts and minds as well.
